OPERATORS REFUSE TO INCREASE WAGES

FALL RIVER ON VERGE OF RENEWAL OF THE BIG STRIKE OF 1904.

FALL RIVER, Oct. 24.—This city is on the verge of a renewal of the great strike of 1904 is the consensus of opinion throughout the city, as a result of the action of the manufacturers yesterday afternoon in refusing to grant an advance of twelve and one-half per cent. in wages. The decision was not entirely unexpected, but the hope was expressed that on invitation might be issued to the operators' leaders to meet the millmen in conference and try to avert the impending calamity. No word of compromise or solution was expressed in the gathering of the manufacturers. It was declared by the men whose influence and will were paramount in the councils which determined the course of action leading to the refusal that pre-arranged the seven millmen's letter. The manufacturers stated the mill men, who were silent witnesses of the policy of "stand fast," have learned by experience that it is not to their interests to submit, even indirectly, the policy formulated by these manufacturers who are hostile to the unions. The influence of the executive committee was directed toward restraining the protest which was declared a week ago, and the outbreak of the outbreak anticipated. Although the manufacturers' attitude was mentioned, the sentiment prevailing of the meeting was that the operators were too broken in spirit and too weak to do. In consequence, in their homes or in their offices, to do anything more than to indicate in their attitude.

Workers Favor Strike.
A different view of the situation would have been taken had not feelings of the mill workers been ascertained during the week. The sentiment as shown by the meeting of the executive committee of the textile organizations is practically unanimous for a strike. The dashed spirit of confidence displayed during the awful and stormy attack of the last strike is strong in the workers' mind. It is claimed that they will not be so easily deceived as they were last time, and that they will not be so easily deceived as they were last time. They are entitled to a fair return for the work they do.

CHEAPER GAS CONSUMERS' BILLS INCREASE

Boston: Residents Complain to Municipal Ownership League of New Imposition.

Many residents of Boston have written to the secretary of the Municipal Ownership League, complaining of the quality of the gas in Boston, and declaring that their bills have been larger since the consolidation of the companies than they were before. The writer of this letter lives in Jamaica Plain. "It seems to me the only hope they have for fair treatment is in the sense of municipal ownership in this city. They declare that the time is ripe for Boston to own and operate its gas supply. This is a sample of the letters, received by the secretary.

MISS BAIN HELD CAPTIVE ON THE DORADO

Miss Bain Declares She, With Friend, Was Forced to Remain Aboard at Pistol Point, All Sorts of Plunder Taken from Robber Craft.

Special to the Boston American.
NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 24.—As the officials probe deeper into the doings of the men who manned the "pirate ship" Dorado, whose alleged skipper, Henry Allison Jackson of Taunton, is being sought by the police for miles around, they are convinced that the craft was engaged in some of the most desperate enterprises that have ever been carried out on New England shores.

Nitro-glycerine and dynamite enough to blow up a score of banks and chloroform in quantities that would render a company of soldiers unconscious have been taken from the craft. For what purpose these were used can only be surmised.

Ruth Adelaide Bain, a sixteen-year-old niece of Jackson, declares she, with a girl friend, was decamped on board the craft and detained there by force until they contrived to escape.

SYSTEMATIC INQUIRY BEGINS.
Detectives from Providence and New York arrived here today to engage in a systematic investigation of the mystery. It is believed that by the capture of this boat there will be solved some of those mysterious crimes for which there has never been explanation, all of which were committed while the Dorado was cruising about Long Island Sound.

MIDWAY JACKSON ON HIS SHIP.
Middletown, Conn., Oct. 24.—A report received today that the correspondent of the Boston American, who was on the Dorado, had been taken to Middletown, Conn., and was being held there. The report was that the correspondent was being held there by the police.

KEPT GIRL ON YACHT
BY THREATENING
HER WITH REVOLVER.
TALBOT, Oct. 24.—William Hall, father of Ruth Adelaide Bain, one of the girls who was taken aboard the pirate yacht Dorado by Jackson, whom the police are seeking, has been threatened by his daughter with a revolver, and told her that if she attempted to leave the yacht she would be killed.

DEPUTIES GUARDED LOOT.
With much success the loot from the Dorado has been taken away and is now guarded by deputy sheriffs. It includes a large quantity of nitro-glycerine, dynamite, and other explosives, as well as a large quantity of clothing and other personal effects.

Escaped At East Greenwich.
The next word of them was on the following Saturday when my daughter returned to her home here. She said that she had been threatened by Jackson, and that she had been taken aboard the yacht Dorado by Jackson, whom the police are seeking, and that she had been threatened by her daughter with a revolver, and told her that if she attempted to leave the yacht she would be killed.

HERO RESCUES 2 WOMEN FROM FIRE, BY STAIRWAY AND LADDER

OTHERS IN PERIL FROM FLAMES AT ATTLEBORO

Silverware and Cut Glass Lost in $15,000 Damage at Jeweler's Home, HAD PREPARED RECEPTION

Special to the Boston American. ATTLEBORO, Oct. 24.—Seven fire victims were rescued from a fire which today, in the beautiful residence of A. H. Wiles on Summer street, North Attleboro. Two women were carried out of the burning building in their night clothes. The women, Mrs. Josephine Crandall, sixty-five years old, and Miss Crandall, a nurse, were sleeping on the second floor, and were not awakened by the cries of fire. They were taken out by Charles Pardee, who discovered the fire.

Following his sending in a telephone message for the fire department Mr. Pardee endeavored to reach the second floor by the stairs. He was driven back by the smoke and flames. He rushed outdoors and secured a ladder which he raised against a veranda.

Carried Down Ladder.—Reaching the top of the veranda he climbed in a window and dragged Miss Crandall out of bed, carried her to the top of the veranda and down the ladder. Mr. Pardee then rushed back to the room in which the mother-in-law, Mrs. Crandall, was sleeping. He threw a wet towel about her head and carried her down the back staircase.

There in the house at the time were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wiles, the latter being a wealthy jewelry manufacturer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pardee, a retired manufacturer, their son, Leonard, and Miss Crandall and the maid, Miss Kelley. Mr. and Mrs. Wiles were at first shocked, but before the fire had reached the second floor they had calmed down and remained in the house.

Planned Reception.—The fire had made elaborate preparations for a reception for the women, to receive them before their departure for California. On the table was spread the most costly silverware and cut glass. On the walls had been hung paintings and other decorations. They were all destroyed. Mr. Pardee lost many valuable papers. An expensive cruet glass was broken.

The flames and smoke were among the best known and influential families in Attleboro, and have an extensive acquaintance among the families of Massachusetts and other sections.

EDITOR BAILS CHILD'S FIANCE

Raphael Torrella, a former Harvard man, arrested at the Rock Bay station on complaint of "Boss" Bennett, who declared Torrella was about to leave the State while owing him money, was rescued from a slight in a suit by his prospective father-in-law, Charles H. Bennett of Lynn, publisher of the Lynn Item.

According to Bennett, Torrella owes him $2,000, which he borrowed while a student at the university. He declares he has taken every possible method of collecting the sum, but that Torrella persistently refused to pay. Bennett, who is a wealthy man, is now in a suit against Torrella for the amount before he could secure a writ of habeas corpus for his son.

Torrella says he has secured legal aid and has been told that he need not pay any sum to Bennett, but that he must appear in court to settle the matter.

LABOR NEWS

The Cyprianites' Union, numbering about forty-five members, is to be merged into the Sheet Metal Workers' Union No. 17. It was announced at last night's meeting of the latter organization. The committee are making this action on the advice of President Gowers of the American Federation of Labor, who ruled that in order to become affiliated with the Federation they must become allied with the sheet metal workers.

After a meeting by Business Agent John J. Kennedy, it was decided not to place a large ventilation fan in this city on the strike list for the time being. The explanation made by the firm will be referred to the executive board for final action. It was impressed upon the members of the union that they must insist upon all sheet metal workers carrying the new union card issued October 1.

The sheet metal workers' strike was in effect. A vote was taken, making 100 in favor of the strike. The strike was declared for the annual ball to be held in the city.

THE POOR TO SUFFER MOST

Mr. Boston American learned Vice, NEW YORK, Oct. 24. Through the agency in today's early and quieting rally in Bohemia Hall last night William Hearst was enthusiastically cheered by crowds of people who gathered upon another week of the people's fight for reform with John D. Rockefeller.

Last night's meeting furnished abundant proof of the thorough nature in which the masses are aroused. Bohemia Hall is at No. 221 East Seventh Street, from fights up, with its elevation. Mr. Hearst was not scheduled to speak last night.

Yet three thousand people crowded into the auditorium, and the thousands more who could not get into the building organized an overflow meeting down the street.

The program of the meeting was marked by ever increasing enthusiasm until at 8:20 o'clock, when Mr. Hearst appeared. He was greeted by a shout of approval and ran up the stairs into the hall until, when the speaker appeared, he appeared on the platform, it swelled into a roar of cheering, hurrahs, and applause.

Mr. Hearst's frequent motions to the big audience for silence.

Mr. Hearst said in part:

My friends, twelve days ago there was only one candidate, one ticket, in the field, and friends were cheerfully congratulating Mr. McGowan on his reelection.

On the day after our nomination had been made the McGowan machine published a statement estimating our strength at 20,000 votes. This, they had rated their estimate to 30,000 votes.

Between 150,000 and 160,000, and a difference of 100,000 votes is a difference of 100,000 votes.

The Beef Trust, through its newly acquired control of 75 per cent of the tanning industry, is preparing to make every pair of shoes cost the purchaser an average price of one dollar more than is now being paid.

This advance will come as soon as the tanners have added and their present stock and begin to put out new goods.

The Beef Trust, through its grip on the tanneries, is putting up prices on leather, which will force manufacturers and therefore the retailers to advance their prices.

As soon as their prices are raised, it will be in the option of men familiar with the shoe and leather trade, will fall heavily on the poor—the buyers of lower grade shoes.

Eastern leather dealers and manufacturers are already feeling the first pressure of the Beef Trust on the leather market and are alarmed.

To Call on President.

Representatives, backed by a number of the most prominent shoe and shoe manufacturers in the country, will demand of President Roosevelt that he should immediately call on the tanneries to curb the extortion of the Beef Trust.

Representatives of the tanneries have been in conference with the Beef Trust, and the Beef Trust has been in conference with the tanneries.

The committee will be joined with the Beef Trust and will call on the President to call on the tanneries.

He will be urged to recommend in his message to Congress legislation that will deprive the Beef Trust of many of the tanneries' opportunities for extortion.

With Louis A. Frothingham the Reform candidate for Mayor of Boston, the tanneries, the speakership of the Legislature will be a warm one. Had Speaker Frothingham, declined to return to the House, there would have been no question as to his reelection in the chair.

In fact, it is likely that he may not return to the House. If he does he will be a strong factor in the fight, as he is familiar with the Democrats as well as with the liberal element of the Republican members.

He was House chairman of the Ways and Means Committee last year and one of the most vigorous debaters of the House.

Mr. Ward has a fight on his hands and it is likely possible that he may not return to the House. If he does he will be a strong factor in the fight, as he is familiar with the Democrats as well as with the liberal element of the Republican members.
